SOCIETY NEWS AND CHAT OF THE WEEK

ATLANTIC CITY

New Supreme Court Justice Spends Holidays at Resort.

EDUCATOR BROWN THERE

James Lane Allen, the Author, Spends Christmas at Shore.

ATLANTIC CITY, Dec. 29.-Large numbers of visitors have crowded the hotels of the resort during the holiday One of the most important be-Attorney General of the Unitel States, and now a member of the Supreme Court of the United States, Mr. Moody came here several weeks ago on purely business trip, but he was so well pleased with his visit that he took the first chance of a little vacation and came over to the resort to spend the

Notes and Personals.

the Hon, Elmer Ellsworth Brown, Committee it is doubtful whether they will return will visit Lord and Lady Cheylesmore missioner of Education, of the United to America before next fall. teachers on Thursday afternoon.

the Hotel Dennis.

Miss Anna Wagner and F. F. Wagner, of Baltimore, well known in the social circles of that city and Washington, are staying at the Hotel Brighton. They will make an extended sojourn at the

Society

Sibour, Mrs. Peyton Russell, Mrs. Dun can McKim, Mrs. John Jackson, Mrs. Nathaniel Wilson, Mrs. Lee Phillips, and Mrs. Jack Riddle.

W. W. Cryder sailed yesterday for ton. Europe, to spend the winter abroad. Mrs. M. Newmyer is visiting her sis-

Mrs. Dave Cohen is spending the holi-1018 Vermont avenue

Mrs. Joe Kahn, of New York, forweek with Mrs. Max Weyl, 1810 R street.

guest of Mrs. Nattans. jr., are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Katz, of Paterson, N. J.

picture hat, and carried lilies of the valley. T. Kaufman, of New York, was best man and Dr. Louis Stern officiated.

Thomas W. Robinson, Mrs. William B. Dangerfield, Mrs. James Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner Boothe. Mr and Mrs. Straus will reside in New

Miss Lothe, of New York city, is vis-iting Miss Malvin Woog, of 400 P street. Winchester, Va.

Miss Cecelia Lyons was entertained at a reception by Dr. and Mrs. Leon in daughters, Mrs. R. L. Luckett, and her the Falcon apartment. Interesting games were played. The ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Leon, and the genmen's prize by Sylvan Luchs. A buffet supper was served

Joe Dannenberg, of New York city, is spending a few days in the city.

DOWN BELOW.

Hicks-Well, it's all over with old

Wicks-Very charitable of you to say

Hicks-Charitable? The man's dead. Wicks—Yes, and some people firmly believe that it's all under with him now.—The Calholic Standard and Times.

EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING 75c Watch Crystals, 10c. 10c A. KAHN, 935 F St. 27. W.

MR. MOODY ENJOYS Gothamites Quit Town For Holiday in Country; Some Come to Capital

New Year Day, like Christmas, will at least, a portion of the season at be celebrated by the "400" to a great extent in the country, and tomorrow tice will be kept up by the smart set evening the customary New Year Evening the customary New Year Evening the customary New Year Evening the Roosevelts leave the White ball at the clubhouse at Tuxedo will House, remains to be seen. take many of the fashionable set out to the popular suburban resort, where nu-

Mrs. Stewart's Trouble.

and that, for the first time in many ears, on the occasion of Christmas and holidays. He stayed at Young's Hotel, and not one among the visitors enjoyed the season of good cheer more than he. can be season of good cheer more than he. can be season of good cheer more than he. can be season of good cheer more than he. can be season of good cheer more than he. can substitute the ceremonial the big steam yacht Margherita, which constitute the ceremonial costume of the Hungarian magnate, hey have chartered from their brotherin-law, Anthony Drexel, and after ter-Another well-known Washingtonian minating their visit to the land of the who came over after Christmas, on a com-Nile, will cruise on to India, China and derbilts sail for Europe for quite a probusiness and pleasure trip, was Japan before returning home. Indeed, States. Mr. Brown was here for the purpose of attending the annual meeting of the New Jersey Teachers' Associety as to whether Mrs. Smith's recent divorce from W. Rhinelander Stew-He made an address before the art will stand in the way of her pres-s on Thursday afternoon. entation to the consort of the Khedive Miss Cromwell, E. Cromwell, and J. H. R. Cromwell, of Washington, have been among the holiday visitors in the resort. They stayed at Young's Hotel.

Mrs. Aulick Palmer and J. A. Palmer, of Washington, have augmented the visiting colony at the Hotel Traymore.

James Lane Allen, the author, has been spending the Christmas season at the state balls and state banquets. Abbas II, who has a very exalted notion of his own importance, has introduced all kinds of strict rules about presentation at his court, which he is endeavoring to run on the lines of those of King Edward and of the Emperor of Austria, and under the circumstances it is quite possible he may subject Mrs. James Henry Smith to the unpleasant affront of declining to the unpleasant affront of declining to been spending the Christmas season at the latter's state balls and state banquets. Abbas II, who has a very exalted notion of his own importance, has introduced all kinds of strict rules about presentation at his court, which he is endeavoring to run on the lines of those of King Edward and of the Emperor of Austria, and under the circumstances it is quite possible he may subject Mrs. Abbas II, who has a very exalted notion of his own importance, has introduced all kinds of strict rules about presentation at his court, which he is endeavoring to run on the lines of those of King Edward and of the Europe on board the German liner Amerika.

Louis L. Lorillard and his wife were to have gone abroad on the Amerika, but owing to his election to the membership of the representative council of Newport, which assumes office on that have been obliged to nostoone his Mrs. Tomas Keith and Miss Douglass. and to her appearance at the latter's

There are many who have gone to New Year, and will be seen at the varous entertainments given at the White John H. Minds, a Philadelphia lawyer, at one time one of the best known foot-Miss Lucy Roosevelt, daughter of Mrs. ball captains in the country, is a visitor at the Brighton. The youngsters who play football on the beach have no more interested spectator than "Jack" Minds, late of the Linkwestix of Day and Mrs. Alfred Warner and Mrs. Alfred W late of the University of Pennsylvania several other young girls, who are either related to the Roosevelts, or in whom the President and his good wife are interested. Most of these New York visitors to the National Capital this week, having been fully expected. These Washingtonians registered at the following Atlantic City hotels this week: Hotel Abbey, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Harrower: Seaside House, Mrs. Parker: Hotel Traymore, Mrs. J. A. Wells, Mrs. Anlick Palmer, J. A. Palmer, and J. A. Lannier; Hotel Wiltshire, Mrs. K. M. Collins.

Ors to the National Capital this week, having been fully expected. So, too, was the engagement of Mrs. John J. McCook's pretty daughter, Janet, to young Malcolm Whitman, who, although he halls from Boston, is now a member of the firm of Harding Whitman & Co., of New York. He was graduated from Harvard seven years ago, and has on three occasions been the fashion now in New York to spend, the tennis champion of the Unite States. CHOLLY KNICKERBOCKER.

rous house parties are being given by the official reception at the White connection with the dance. judges of the Supreme Court of the United States appear in their robes, the Kingcraig, perhaps the most beauti-ful place at Tuxedo, remains closed, in their full dress uniforms, and the members of the foreign mission, in most gorgeous gold-embroidered coats, New Year. In all previous winters it covered with the insignia of various always been the scene of the most avish hospitality at this season. But two of the embassies, the appearance lavish hospitality at this season. But its owner, James Henry Smith, and his bride, the former Mrs. Rhinciander Stewart, are abroad, and just at present in Egypt, where they are spending the holidays at Cairo. They have with them a party of friends, including the Duke and Duchess of Manchester, whose little childays have been left at home in Joseph. notably the envoy. Baron Henry Smith and peacock feathers, while several of the representatives of Emperor Francis Joseph. notably the envoy. Baron Henry Smith, and his surpass even those of their members will present, will surpass even those of their members will present, will surpass even those of their members will present, will surpass even those of their colleagues in picturesqueness. For the Chinese envoy and his staff will be arrayed in gayly colored silks and furs, and corals and peacock feathers, while several of the representatives of Emperor Francis. and Duchess of Manchester, whose little representatives of Emperor Francis tle children have been left at home in Ireland in charge of the duchess' American aunt. Miss Effic Evans, at Tanderagee Castle. The "Silent" Smiths betts, and the heron-plumed kalpak, or

"Silent" Smiths

and will also complete the arrange winners of their stables at the principa eric Nilson, with her son-in-law and eldest daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis ooned his sailing for Europe, which

Yuletide Betrothals.

Yuletide has been productive of sev eral engagements, the most notable having been that of Miss Pauline hore, N. C.; and Capt. and Mrs. War- ago, and has on three occasions been the tennis champion of the United

About Alexandrians Caught

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Sands, of children, of Washington, and Miss Mary Richmond, are the guests of Judge Nor-Harlow, who is attending school near

Mrs. George B. Johnston, who has been in New York for the past six weeks, has returned to her home in this brother, Harrison Carr, of Newport ter, Mrs Aaron Birkenwald, of Balti-

Lloyd Uhler is spending his vacation

John Barker Barrett, who has for the merly of Kansas City, spent the past past two years been on an engineering Wednesday at a meeting of the Eight-week with Mrs. Max Weyl, 1810 R street. corps in southern Georgia, is spending hand Euchre Club—the members present few days with his brother, Charles Miss Rena Fishel is in Baltimore, the Barrett, in this city.

Miss Alice Crawford has left for Rich-Mrs. Abe King and son, Henry King, mond, where she will join a house party. Judge and Mrs. Louis C. Barley en-Mrs. Katz, of Paterson, N. J.

A pretty marriage took place last week in Freund's Hall, when Miss Emma Mrs. and Mrs. George French, Mr. and Schwah, of this city became the wife Mrs. Henry Robertson, Mrs. Henry Robertson, Harry Demerst, Miss Katherine Uhler, and Mrs. Henry Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robertson, Mrs. H Schwab, of this city, became the wife Mrs. Henry Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. of Albert Straus, of New York. Only George Uhler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tulrelatives were present. The bride wore ler, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boothe, Mr. a becoming gown of white satin and a and Mrs. Carroll Ashby, Mr. and Mrs.

Miss Olive Lyons has returned from visit to Upper Marlboro, Md.

Powell Brooks spent the past week in

M. B. Harlow has as his guests his

RAW MILK DANGEROUS

for Children and Invalids. Scarlet fever is unknown in countries where cow's milk is not used as food; hence milk from unsanitary stables may contain the poison causing it.

Milk is also known to have caused enidence of DIPHTHERIA, TYPHOID, and other ENTERIC diseases. A simple precaution consists in

> SCALDING MILK (Don't boil it.)

and scalding it will NOT affect its digestibility. After scalding keep cool and covered. A regular diet for children on consed milk is inadvisable SOCIETY FOR PREVENTION

OF SICKNESS. E. BERLINER, Sec'y, We favor a stringent law prohibiting the sale, or use in ice cream, of any Miss Ruth Fryant left Wednesday for days with her father, Gus Lansburgh, of with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Annapolis, where she will remain several days.

> Miss Cora Cochran was the hostes were Mesdames William M. Uhler, dusco Kemper, George Evans, Richard C. Acton, Isaac Gregg, Edward H. Kemper, Misses Mamie Agnew, Anita Robins, Loula Smoot, Sallie Kemper and Annie Murphy. Miss Cochran's Agnew was the winner of the first prize, and Mrs. George Evans and Mrs. Henry Robinson won the other two.

Thomas H. Reed, of Philadelphia, risiting his sister, Mrs. George French, on North Alfred street.

Mrs A. D. Brockett has as her guest her mother, Mrs. James L. Mourse, and her sister, Mrs. Edgar Myers, Misses Mamie and Bessie Jones enter tained the Junior Bridge Club a week ago Saturday afternoon. Those present

Congressional Coffee, the Very Finest, 35c lb. Thea-Nectar Tea, 60c lb. Once Used, Always Used. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. Main Store, Cor. 7th and E Sts. N.W.

The KNABE

The PIANO that appeals to artists and amateurs as the perfection of pianoforte Construction.

The Knabe
Angelus is a perfect combination of the best plano
and best self-playing mechanism.

Consult us about Renting and Tuning Wm. Knabe @ Co. 1218-20 F Street

ner L. Boothe, Misses Lucy and Hattie Douglas, Edith Ramsey, Grace and Lisa Anderson, Courtney Marshall. Josie Robinson, Emily Carr, of Newport News; Charlotte Blackburne, Mittie Herbert, Mary Hooft, Mrs. David Rust, and Mrs. Louis S. Scott, William Herbert is on a visit to his

Miss Lisa Deane Anderson left Saturday for Richmond to join a house

Alexander Murray, surgeon, U. S. A. to sailing for Panama

Mrs. Frank Harper gave a delightful "at home" Friday afternoon. Miss Helen Cummings assisted her in receiving. Miss Sallie Stewart poured tea. Skerrett, U. S. N., of this city; M. D. and Miss Eva Dent, Miss Jessie Arm-Blondell and Fred R. Whitney. Mr. strong, and Miss Ellen Faucett served in the dining room.

Miss Grace Broadus and Sydnor Madison Broadus, of Passaic, N. J., are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Mary C.

Miss Anna Carr, of Richmond, spent few days with Mrs. Louis S. Scott on her way to Baltimore.

Miss Marion Bryant is the guest of Miss Marguerite Ames, in Annapolis.

Mrs. Gardner Lloyd Boothe gave the last of her "at homes" Wednesday af-ternoon. She was assisted in receiving by Miss Mary Leadbeater and her sister, Miss Frances Carr. Dr. Edmund Franklyn is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. Harris Franklyn. Dr. Franklyn has recently returned from New York, where he has been attending special clinics. Miss Beatrice Balwin, granddaughter guest of Miss Nellie Uhler.

Friday at the last of a series of de-

Newport, which assumes office on that night. Miss Herbert was the guest of day, he has been obliged to postpone his Mrs. Tomas Keith and Miss Douglass trip across the Atlantic. For the same and Miss Snowden were the guests of reason, Col. De Lancey Kane has post-

Miss Cora Cochran entertained some of her friends informally Wednesday and Miss Murray; Invitation to Dance, weening.

A delightful luncheon was given by Mr. and Mrs. John M. Johnson, Thursday, to the friends of Miss Marion and Emily Johnson. Those invited were Misses Esther Green, Cora Jones, Esther Burke, Frances Faulkner, and Annie Wright Hurst and Earbara Hooe, of Washington.

THE VALLEY OF SLEEP.

lies in the West when the sun goes down, Cradled by shining mountains of gold, and its gaudy forests are never brown, Its meadows gleam with a wealth un-told,

Watered by crimsoning rivers of light. Those shining pools now a mystery First, we must hope, then love, then Morn can not prize the pleasure deep Of the beautiful distant valley of

At midday its streets look long and may keep— First we must climb ambition's

Noon can not prize the silence deep Of the beautiful hazy valley of sleep

The shadows of eve stretch far and wide
And life bereft of its old desire
Follows the wake of a purple tide
Lit by a sun's innocuous fire.
Now when the ways are passed and Fain would we paddle these waters deep,

Too tired to labor, or love, or weep;
Eve would eternal slumber keep
In the beautiful silent valley of sleep.
—Grace O'Boyle.

For New Year's Gatherings Use

TO-KALON REGIMENTAL PUNCH

Mixed with such accurate pre-cision that the flavor is just right White or red.

$2.50 per gallon; 65c quart bottle. For EGGNOG

Old Gray Rye, $1 quart Old Jamaica Rum, $1 quart Apricot Brandy, $1 quart Open Late Monday Night. Leave Your Orders Early.

TO-KALON WINE CO., 614 14th St. N. W. Phone M. 998

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO ALL MUSIC LOVERS

music circles as an excellent violinist land an active worker in the cause of ler have been staying at the New Willin the music in Washington, sailed last lard for the past fortnight, and have organized, and now consists of thirteen Thursday on La Provence for Havre been very much entertained. Mrs. members, as follows: Miss L. M. Clark, for an indefinite stay abroad. He was Batcheller's beautiful voice, rare techrecently made confidential secretary to nique and art need no new mention, as Chapman, Miss Ethel G. Miner, Miss Simon Lake, president of the Lake they have been much admired in this Mercy Adkins, Mrs. E. F. Miner, Miss Torpedo Boat Company, and has gone country and in the Old World. The Margaret Alvord, and Miss Louise Morparty given by her cousins, Gov. and abroad with Mr. Lake and his party.

Mrs. Claud Swanson.

They will remain in Paris for a short time and then establish headquarters young singer in Berlin, from where they will make sical world. is spending a few days in this city prior trips from time to time to St. Peters-

Rome, and Paris.

The other members of the party are Miss Mrs. Lake, two daughters and a son; fessional, in the sense that her liveliecciv-Robert G. Skerrett, son of Colonel hood is earned with her music. Just Blondell, and Fred B. Whitney. Mr. Scholz was selected for this responsible position because of his cultivation languages and music, and has taken his violin with him, prepared to do considerable playing for the Lake family, who are great patrons of music.

Mr. Pruette's Fine Singing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pruette, the ormer a very popular Washington an who has made a splendid name for himself in the professional world ful, artistic touch is given to all the as a baritone singer, spent two weeks descriptions. The author's style is easy, before Christmas with relatives here. They left last week for Chicago, where tains a vast deal of real information sienne," (Bizet); prelude, Tempo di they now are, and will go to London given to the reader in a most agreeable Marcia; minuet, allegro giocoso; ada with Mme. Fritzi Scheff, where they will open on Easter Monday in "Mile. majesty, the Queen of Italy, Modiste." Mr. Pruette did splendid work in the little singing which he had to do in this production, and it was a matter of the greatest regret to be given on Tuesday evening, January lovers of good singing that he was 15, by the Greater Washington Band, was a matter of the greatest regret to not given more solos. Mrs. Pruette John Bovello, cenductor, in Carroll Inwas one of the original members of stitute Hall. the Casino company during Aronson's of Charles M. Crittenton, the founder of the Florence Crittenton Mission, is the her professional work. They have two her professional work. They have two interesting boys in school at Watertown, Mass.

Preparing for Concert Tour. Arthur George Mulligan, well known in New York as a basso cantanti, is visitin in Washington. Mr. Mulligan the songs rendered were: "The Declining a pupil of Signor Lenardo Vegara, who has turned out a score of noted the songs rendered were: "The Declining Day," "Salve Regina," "Differences," "Merry Blue-eyed Laddie," "Of the Market Lenardo Vegara, who has turned out a score of noted the score of the control of t Boothe, jr., and Mrs. Thomas Robinson. vocalists. For some time Mr. Mulli-Course," "The Money Jug." "Wenn," gan has been in New York, but he "Die Engel," "A Bit of Work, a Bit of is now preparing for a concert tour

Musicale at Anacostia Home.

the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. ton Howard's new mass in D was sung taining sight to see this baby accommuray, in Anacostia, Thursday even-by the boys' section of the Immaculate panying the singers at Christian En-Myron B. Marshall is spending his ing. Mr. Rakemann, one of Washingcolidays with his father, Col. Richard
C. Marshall, in Portsmouth, Va.

J. Murray, gave the following program:

J. Murray, gave the following program: Agitato, Abschied, Mr. Rakemann pression. ied. Wagner, Mr. Rakemann; Sonats Miss Murray.

Delightful Christmas Mass.

of the Visitation on Connecticut avenue, midnight Christmas Eve was especially interesting. Father O'Hara, of the children in the songs and acts rep-Georgetown College, was the celebrant resenting the nations, characters from and the music was in charge of Miss Mamie Mullaly, who also acted as organist. The program was well rendered Day, could not have been better. Much and comprised portions of Stehle's in D and Gounod's "St. Cecelia," Novello's "Adeste Fideles," "With Glory Lit," old air, and Adams' "O. Holy night." The solos were sung by Misses Margaret and Katherine Aylmer and Sister Mary Gertrude, of the convent.

Friends Welcome Mrs. Batcheller. Mrs. Tryphosa Bates Batcheller whose voice has not been heard in Washington since she sang two years takes; will and strength that victory takes; he hush of the summer sweet rest may keep—whose voice has not been heard in Washington since she sang two years takes, while the morrow's fight, ago in the White House for the President and Mrs. Roosevelt, was entured in the calm effugent light, here, who welcomed her back after triber here. Whose voice has not been heard in The choir of vermont Avenue Christ, composed by Dudley Buck, while the sum of the ter's charming musicale last week. An- birthday of a King," and the choir will

Mrs. Batcheller's training has been burg, Vienna, London, Christiania, thoroughly professional, but when she accepts fees she always gives them to charity, so she cannot be called a pronow her newly-published book, "Glimpses of Italian Court Life," which subject of much commendation and dis-

> Mrs. Batcheller is a great lover of picture of the Italy of today; the court life of which Mrs. Batcheller saw much, the beloved places of the traveler-Sorrento, Capri, Almalfi, etc. A delightelegant and fluent, and the volume con tains a vast deal of real information form. The work is dedicated to her

Promenade Concert and Dance.

A promenade concert and dance will Rhapsody, No. 2, (Liszt), "The Star

Mr. Hoover's Song Recital.

Halstead P. Hoover's song recital rewas peculiarly interesting. The pro-gram was made up entirely of the compositions of Harry Wheaton Howard organist and choir master of the Church "Little Boy Blue," etc. Mr. Howard also played from original comsitions for plane: 'Romance," "Child Pursuing a Butterfly," An interesting musicale was given at Prayer," and a "Bolero." Harry Whea-Pense Fugitives, Heller and Ernst; Cardinal, and made a pronounced im-

Children Give Cantata.

A Christmas cantata, entitled "John Saint-Saens, Mr. Rakemann and nie Doubter" was given by the children of the Rhode Island Avenue Methodist Protestant Sunday School in the new unday school house on Friday evening The Christmas mass in the Convent About forty children took part, and it f the Visitation on Connecticut avenue, was a briliant success. The costuming was excellent, and the performance of resenting the nations, characters from the Mother Goose rhymes, and a street cene among the poor on Christmas redit is due the untiring work of Mrs. H. Mayers and her assistants, Miss Nellie and Viola Neale, in training the hildren. The Sunday school house was rowded to overflowing, yet the arrangements were so perfect that everything passed off like clockwork. tainment was in charge of G. A. Weber

Special Music for Church.

William H. Scholz, well known in ton Gloetzner, Ernest Lent, and Henry render Miles' "Glory to God in the

In the early fall this choir was replaudits of many royalties, as well as gan; R. C. Miller, Col. Benjamin Alvord, critics and composers, have given the Charles W. Bridwell, and Benjamin A. oung singer a unique place in the mu- Lineback. The quartet is composed of Miss Ethel G. Miner, soprano; Miss Mercy Adkins, alto; Charles W. Bridwell, ineor, and Benjamin A. Lineback, basso, who is also choir director. The organist is Mrs. J. Ernest Sparks.

Marine Band Concert.

It is a matter of the keenest regret to music lovers that the concert this evenhas been out only a month, and has passed into the fourth edition, is the ing of the Marine Band will be the last of this season. The program arranged for tonight in the New National Theater is an exceptionally pleasing one. Ole Italy, and her book, written in the form J. May will be the euphonium soloist; of letters, gives the reader a most vivid Fritz Mueller, 'cello soloist, and Norman Daly will be the plane accompanist. The program is as follows: Overture, "812," (Tschaikowsky); Nocturne, "The Dying Poet," (Gottschalk); euphonium solo, "Le Secret," (Hazel), Ole J. May; waltz, "The Beautiful Blue Danube," (Strauss); suite, "L'Arlegietto, adagio; carillon, allegretto moderato; solos for violoncello, adagio, "Longing," (Stevenson); Czardas, (Fisher), Fritz Mueller; Hungarian Czardas, #### Personal Notes.

The Rebew orchestra, H. W. Weber, irector, discontinued its rehearsals during the holidays.

E. N. Hopewell, violinist of the Rebew orchestra, is spending the Christ-mas holidays with his parents in Edin-

Little Miss Scores Success,

Clara Clark Barclay, daughter of Postoffice Inspector Barciay, formerly a resident of Altoona, Pa., afforded a large audience a musical treat Wednesday evening at Luther Memorial Church. She is proving a star as a planist in this day of baby artists. She has fine technique, wonderful powers for memorizing, and her sight reading keeps pace with her other gifts. It is an enterpanying the singers at Christian En-

Winifried Goff in Recital.

Winifred Goff, now appearing with "Madame Butterfly," with the kind perdission of Mr. Savage, will be heard in this city at the Raleigh Hotel, Monday evening, January 7, at 8:30, in a joint song recital with Thomas Evens Greene,

Quartet to Repeat Program.

The quartet at Waugh M. E. Church will give the same program today that was given last Sunday. Among the selections were, "Arise! Shine! For Thy. Light is Come." Dudley Buck. The organ numbers were: "Tannhauser," by Wagner; "Fanfare," Lemmens; Venite Adoremus," Lefelure-Wely; "A Royal Procession." Spinney. The quarerector, Spinney. The quartet consists of Miss Alice Maydwell, soprano; Miss Grace Maydwell, contralto; Mr. Perry Arnold, tenor; Mr. Howard Roderick, bass; Mrs. Kirk L. Russell, organist; Mr. Arthur Clye Leonard, discontinuous and the sector.

To Sing Sacred Cantata. "The Coming of the King," a sacred cantata announcing the birth of the

"Careful Handling"

West End Storage Company Office: 1321 F Street N. W.

RATES ON HOUSEHOLD GOODS:

Warehouse: Rear 527 Spruce Street N. W.

Separate Rooms, $2.00. Single Loads, $1.00. Pianos, 75c.

Carriages, $1.00.

Phones Office Main 1159 Warehouse North 915

TIMES COUPON Cut This Out

presentation of this coupon. West End Storage Company

First month storage free on

Estimates Furnished

Trunks, 25c.